

Bahina Jewels Brings More Flowers Into Fall With (Real!) Rose Earrings

August 28, 2015 by BRITTANY SIMINITZ

Do you remember a few weeks ago, when I tried to convince you that autumn should be all about flowers, using Parade Designs' new jewelry to prove it? You must have been sold by then. But just but in case you're still wavering on the matter, I've got more! Bahina Jewels has a new line of pieces for fall, many of which incorporate some sort of floral element into the design. And this trio doesn't feature just any flower—these babies are real! The miniature roses on these earrings are treated with a special resin to keep them looking “fresh,” and have a super lightweight feel. The roses are available in a variety of colors, and consequently, there are a number of earring designs to fit your customer's fancy. Each of these pieces has that Bahina flair that I've always admired (seriously, these sisters are so good at what they do!), and you'll find something perfect for fall in all three. There's a tassel design for the on-trend shopper; a colorful tiered look with a youthful aesthetic; and a classic but moody ode to autumn, with a slim gemstone cascade of golden leaves that give it a seasonal boost. Here they are!
